General Information

About China

China is one of the world's most ancient civilizations with rich tangible and cultural heritages endowed by a history of over 5,000 years. As the world's largest developing country, China has made remarkable achievements in economic and social development. Today's China enjoys political and social stability and fast economic prosperity, and people's standard of living has been rising.

Geography

Situated in East Asia, China faces the Pacific Ocean to the east. With a land area of 9.6 million square kilometers, China has a highly varied terrain that in general slopes downward from the west to the east.

Climate

China has highly varied climate conditions across its vast territory. Most part of the country is located in the North Temperate Zone, which gives it a continental monsoon climate, featuring moderate weather conditions and four distinct seasons.

Population, Ethnicity and Language

Population: 1.33474 billion (2009)

Ethnicity: China is a multi-ethnic country with 56 different ethnic groups

Language: Over 80 different languages are spoken in China, about 30 of which have written forms.

Putonghua (Mandarin) is the official language of China

Religion

China is a country with multiple religions mainly including Buddhism, Taoism, Islam, Catholicism and Christianity. Chinese citizens enjoy the freedom of religion and belief.

About Shenzhen City

Geographic Location

Shenzhen is a coastal city in southern China, adjoining Hong Kong. It is located to the south of the Tropic of Cancer, 113°46' ~ 114°37' E and 22°27' ~ 22° 52' N. Situated in southern Guangdong Province, it borders Hong Kong across the Sham Chun River to the south, Dongguan and Huizhou to the north, Daya Bay and Dapeng Bay to the east and the Lingding Bay and the estuary of the Pearl River to the west. Its vast sea areas connect with the South China Sea and the Pacific Ocean.

Natural Resources

Shenzhen has a total land area of 1,952.84 square kilometers.

There are more than 310 rivers and streams in the city as tributaries of the Dongjiang River, coastal bays and the Pearl River Estuary. There are 220 water conservancy works in the city, including 172 reservoirs storing a total of 585 million cubic meters of water. The Shenzhen Reservoir in the eastern part of its urban area, a main source of domestic water for Shenzhen and Hong Kong, stores a total of more than 40 million cubic meters of water.

Shenzhen has 230 kilometers of coastline and rich marine resources. It can be reached by sea through its major deepwater ports. Several scenic mountains range across Shenzhen, with the highest peak Wutong Mountain being 943.7 meters. The city has rich natural resources for developing tourism. In the eastern part of the city lie such popular beach resorts as Dameisha, Xiaomeisha and Dapeng Bay. In the west are scenic areas including the Mangrove Nature Reserve, Nei Lingding Island and Waterlands Resort.

Administrative Divisions

Shenzhen is a city of sub-provincial administrative status in Guangdong Province. It has direct jurisdiction over six districts and two new areas: Luohu District, Futian District, Nanshan District, Yantian District, Bao'an District, Longgang District, Guangming New Area and Pingshan New Area. On July 1st, 2010, the Special Economic Zone (SEZ) was expanded to all the districts and new areas.

Population

By the end of 2009, the permanent resident population reached 8.9123 million.

Language

In Guangdong, Shenzhen is the only city where Mandarin is mostly spoken with migrants from all over China. Many public service employees, professionals and business people can speak English. Most of the young speak both English and Cantonese.

Service Information

Visa

In principle, all foreigners participating in Universiade Shenzhen 2011 must apply in advance for Chinese visas at Chinese embassies, consulates and offices abroad; at the offices of commissioners in Hong Kong and Macao; or at any other overseas institutions authorized by China's Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The only exception would be foreigners that can receive a visa exemption for entry into the mainland of China.

If the participants plan to travel to Shenzhen via the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (Hong Kong SAR) of the People's Republic of China, they might also need to apply for a visa for the Hong Kong SAR, as well as the visa for the mainland of China.

Chinese Visa Applications

The following materials must be submitted to apply for a Chinese visa:

- (1) The invitation letter from the Organizing Committee;
(The Organizing Committee will send an invitation letter for each member of each accredited delegation.)
- (2) A passport or other valid international travel document is valid for at least 6 months from the date of submission and has at least one blank page for a visa;
- (3) A Visa Application Form of the People's Republic of China filled out accurately, completely and clearly, and signed by the applicant;
- (4) A recent photograph with a full front-view of the applicant's head and shoulders, without any head covering (Head coverings required by religions will be allowed); Casual photos from everyday life, duplicated photos, or digital photos printed on ordinary paper are not acceptable.
- (5) Any other supporting documents related to the visa application required by the visa officer.

The visa application materials must be submitted by the applicant in person, or by another person acting on his or her behalf, except in cases in which the applicant must appear in person, or when the visa officer requires a personal interview. The applicant has the duty to answer the relevant questions from the visa officer.

For further information, please refer to the websites of Chinese embassies and consulates.

Visa Applications for Hong Kong SAR

If participants plan to travel to Shenzhen via the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (Hong Kong SAR), they might need to apply for a double transit/entry visa for the Hong Kong SAR at Chinese embassies, consulates and offices abroad; or at any other institution out of China authorized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of China or the Immigration Department of the Hong Kong SAR. Citizens of some countries can receive visa exemption entry into the Hong Kong SAR. For information regarding the visa requirements for the Hong Kong SAR, please refer to the websites of Chinese embassies and consulates, or the Immigration Department of the Hong Kong SAR (<http://www.immd.gov.hk/>).

Arrival and Departure

The delegations may enter and exit China through Shenzhen Bao'an International Airport (the official designated port of arrival & departure) and Hong Kong International Airport (the official designated airport of transfer and arrival & departure). The Organizing Committee will set up the reception desks there to facilitate the entry and exit of participants and provide special transportation services between the points of arrival & departure and the accommodations. Delegations may also choose the general transfer and entry/exit ports in Beijing, Shanghai, Guangzhou, Urumqi or Zhuhai to enter and exit China; local governments and these ports will not arrange the reception desks for arrival and departure, but just offer them necessary assistance. In addition, The Organizing Committee will not offer any transport service for traveling between the general transfer and entry/exit ports and the accommodations.

The Organizing Committee strongly recommended that the overseas participants may enter and exit China through Shenzhen Bao'an International Airport, or enter China through the general transfer and entry/exit ports and then transfer to a Chinese domestic flight to Shenzhen Bao'an International Airport. It should be particularly noted that, to bring any firearms and ammunition to China, participants shall take Shenzhen Bao'an International Airport or Hong Kong International Airport for entry and exit.

To ensure that participants enjoy quality and efficient services for arrival and departure, it is suggested that the participants provide the information on their arrival and departure to the CO in a timely manner.

Accreditation

The accreditation procedure is presented in brief as follows:

- (1) Accreditation starts from May 12th and ends on July 12th, 2011. During this period, delegations should submit their competitors' Individual Entry Forms (I) to the Department of Accreditation, Arrival & Departure and Information, Executive Office of the Organizing Committee.
- (2) On arriving at the Accreditation Center, Heads of Delegations shall confirm the lists of delegation members. In case of any change, the new member(s) should submit his/her/their Individual Entry Forms (I) immediately and have their photos taken at the center; meanwhile the number of days the delegations will stay in the Universiade Village and their departure time shall be confirmed; their accommodation fees shall be paid; Heads of Delegations' appointments with the CIC the next day shall be arranged.
- (3) Delegations shall claim their temporary identity cards, and enter the Universiade Village.
- (4) Within the following 24 hours, Heads of Delegations shall collect related documents of every delegation member (passport, individual entry form/students ID/FISU Eligibility Form, temporary identity card, etc.), and sort them out by identity (competitor/official), sport and gender to be reviewed by the CIC.
- (5) Heads of Delegations shall take the relevant materials and cash (the official currency recognized by CIC is Euro, 20€ per person for effective member-associations of FISU, 40€ per person for other associations) to the CIC office for appointments;

(6) After all the documents are approved by the CIC, Heads of Delegations shall pay the registration fees and return the temporary identity cards to the Accreditation Center, and then obtain the formal accreditation cards signed by the CIC.

Transportation

The transportation system will be operational from August 5th to August 26th, 2011, providing services to all the accredited members including athletes, officials, technical officials, media and the Organizing Committee and FISU Family. The relevant transportation information and enquiry service will be available at the Transportation Information Desk located on the 1st floor of the Welcome Center in the Universiade Village.

Shenzhen Bao'an International Airport (the official designated port of arrival & departure) and Hong Kong International Airport (the official designated airport of transfer and arrival & departure) are the official designated points of entry & exit, and the Organizing Committee will arrange special vehicles for the participants and VIPs to travel between these points and the accommodations for arrival & departure.

Shuttle buses between the Universiade Village and competition and training venues will be arranged according to the competition and training schedules. Otherwise, special vehicles and free buses will shuttle between the Universiade Village, main competition venues, official hotels and the Media Center.

Transportation will be organized for participants to attend the Opening and Closing Ceremonies.

Catering

The Athletes' Dining Hall at the Universiade Village will provide food and beverage services for athletes, team officials and visitors. The athletes and team officials can use their Accreditation Cards to eat at the Dining Hall; visitors must purchase food coupons before they can enter and eat at the Dining Hall. Only lunches and suppers will be provided for visitors.

The Dining Hall will provide hot/cold food and beverages buffet style.

The catering staff will respect all the customs and cultures of the people of different countries/regions.

Accommodation

The Universiade Village will offer the hotel-style accommodation to all athletes and officials. There are five apartment buildings with 4,997 rooms, and another standby apartment building with 231 rooms. During the Universiade, daily cleaning, check-in & checkout, luggage assistance and other hotel-style services will be provided.

There are 13 official hotels and 14 officially designated hotels which offer the accommodation services for the officials and guests of FISU, technical officials, the work staff of media and press, VIP sponsors, the leaders and guests of the Organizing Committee, additional officials of the delegations and members of study tour groups. These hotels are mainly located along Shennan Road in Longgang and Bao'an Districts, ensuring the convenience to reach competition venues.

Medical Services

- (1) The Organizing Committee will provide to the FISU Family, participants and all accredited persons free and adequate medical assistance.
- (2) The Organizing Committee will provide to the competitors adequate medical assistance during the competition and training time according to the FSI Regulations.
- (3) During the Universiade, the Organizing Committee will provide the medical insurance for all accredited persons covering illness and the injury risks relating to the events.

Competition and Training Venues

An Athlete Medical Station and a Spectator Medical Station will be set up at each competition venue. The stations will provide first-aid and hospital transfers for both accreditation card holders and valid ticket holders. These stations will begin operations one hour before competitions begin and end when all athletes, staff and spectators have left the venue.

Athlete Medical Stations will be set up at each training venue, offering first-aid and hospital transfers. Stations will begin operations 30 minutes before training begins and end one hour after training ends. Athletes' training in unofficial training sites or outside official training periods will be not supported by Universiade Medical Services.

Designated Hospitals

The Organizing Committee will cooperate with high-quality local hospitals. In case of emergencies, the designated hospitals may be used for evaluation and treatment. The information of designated hospitals could be obtained from the medical first aid room.

Please check with HoD Manual and visit the official website of the Organizing Committee for more service information.

Technical Committee

In accordance with Article 3.5.1, Regulations for the 26th Summer Universiade 2011, Shenzhen, there shall be a Technical Committee (CT) for each sport in the Universiade program.

The Badminton Technical Committee shall consist of the following persons:

Chair	Mr. Roger JOHANSSON (SWE)
Badminton World Federation (BWF) Representative	Mr. David CABELLO (ESP)
Organizing Committee Representative	(TBD)
Chinese Badminton Association (CBA) Representative	(TBD)
Three Experts	Nominated at the 1 st General Technical Meeting

Not more than two members of Technical Committee should be from the same country/region.

Technical Regulations

Article 11.1, Regulations for the 26th Summer Universiade 2011, Shenzhen:

11.1 The sports events of the 26th Summer Universiade in Shenzhen 2011 shall be organized in accordance with the most recent technical rules of the appropriate FSIs unless otherwise stated by the Executive Committee.

Article 12.1, 12B, Regulations for the 26th Summer Universiade 2011, Shenzhen:

12.1 Badminton

12.1.1 The badminton tournament will be organized in accordance with the most recent technical regulations of the Badminton World Federation (BWF). In any dispute the English text will be regarded as authoritative.

12.1.2 The program and duration of the competitions are fixed by the Executive Committee in agreement with the Organizing Committee and the CTI. The competitions will last seven (7) days and will include:

I. Individual Tournament

There are five (5) disciplines:

- Men's singles

- Women's singles
- Men's doubles
- Women's doubles
- Mixed doubles

A country/region may enter players as follows: up to a maximum of three (3) singles players in each of the singles disciplines or three (3) pairs in each of the doubles disciplines, on the condition that no player may play in more than two (2) disciplines, e.g. one (1) singles discipline and one (1) doubles discipline, or alternatively in two doubles disciplines.

II. Team Tournament

A country/region shall enter players in the Team Tournament in the following events:

This means that each country/region is authorised to enter a maximum of twelve (12) (may be) competitors.*

At the first General Technical Meeting, the Head of Delegation or his representative shall confirm and sign the official list of the competitors accredited by the CIC.

Competition Format

The Universiade Shenzhen 2011 sets up five disciplines which are included in the individual event: Men's singles, Women's singles, Men's doubles, Women's doubles, Mixed doubles and in the team event: Men's singles, Women's singles, Men's doubles, Women's doubles and Mixed doubles. The individual tournament is run in a knock-out elimination format. Bronze Medals will be awarded to both losing semifinalists. The team tournament is run according to the Sudirman Cup format. First a preliminary round is played in groups playing round-robin where all five matches of the tie must be played, and second elimination rounds are played to establish ranking of the teams. Matches in the elimination round should stop when one team has won the tie. Bronze Medals will be awarded to both losing semifinalist teams.

The ranking and seeding of the competitors and teams for the draw will be determined by the referee and the Badminton CT chair based on BWF ranking, past results, and for the individual event, recent performance in the team event. If no world ranking in singles and doubles is available, the tournament referee and CT chair will use national ranking or other available information to decide the seeding in the badminton tournament in the Universiade. The draw shall be organized in accordance with the draw system for individual and team tournaments in accordance with the BWF regulation. The time and place for the draw, which will be done in public, will be in 1st General Technical Meeting 1 - 2 days before play starts.

A team with all its members must have passed the registration check point before 18:00 the night before the draws are done.

The matches of Badminton tournament in the 26th Summer Universiade, are contested as the best of three games, which are applied by the 21 points scoring system.

Referees, umpires and the number of line judges in the Badminton tournament will be decided by the CT chair. Sufficient number of foreign umpires will be invited to secure neutral umpiring in all matches. Costs for Court officials will be covered by the Organizing Committee.

Doping control will be carried out according to FISU Regulations, WADA Code and BWF rules and at the cost of the Organizing Committee.
